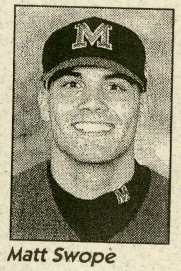
TERPS COMPLETE REGULAR SEASON WITH SENIOR NIGHT VS. WILLIAM & MARY

- The Terrapins close out the 2002 regular season with Tuesday's 7 p.m. game against William & Mary at Shipley Field. The Terps are looking to snap a three-game losing streak suffered at Florida State over the weekend by claiming the season series sweep of William & Mary. In the teams' other meeting, the Terps defeated the Tribe, 14-3, on April 2 at Plumeri Park in Williamsburg, Va.
- With a win against the Tribe, the Terps would set a school record for home victories in a season. A win over William & Mary would finalize Maryland's 2002 home record at 25-7 and eclipse the 1992 team's 24-9 mark at Shipley Field.

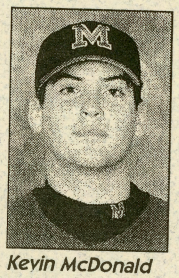
HOME FINALE FOR THREE TERRAPIN SENIORS

- The William & Mary game marks the Shipley Field finale for three Terrapin seniors. Right fielder Matt Swope (New Carrollton, Md.), catcher Kevin McDonald (Rockaway, N.J.) and closer Ken Beck (Laurel, Md.) will don the Terrapins baseball uniform for the final time at Maryland.
- Matt Swope, a four-year starter for the Terps, is one of the top outfielders in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The New Carrollton, Md., native became Maryland's all-time leader in career hits this season with a total of 250, and he also holds Maryland career records for doubles (T-first, 47), runs scored (178), at-bats (756) and total bases (351). He is also among the program's career top ten leaders in stolen bases (sixth, 44), walks (second, 104), RBI (fourth, 131) and extra-base hits (T-fifth, 67).



Matt Swope

- Kevin McDonald has been a four-year fixture in the Maryland line-up. An excellent defensive player behind the plate as well as at first base, McDonald has played in every Maryland game this season. The Rockaway, N.J., native led the Terps in home runs last year and is again one of the team's most dependable hitters this season. An ACC Honor Roll and Maryland Athletic Scholar Athlete Honor Roll selection in 2001, McDonald is one of the team leaders for a Terrapin club that recorded the most wins in school history this year.



Kevin McDonald

- Ken Beck has developed into one of the ACC's elite stoppers in his first season as the team's closer. A converted catcher who switched to the bullpen last season, Beck excels at retiring right-handed hitters with a submarine, down-under delivery. The Laurel, Md., native has been impressive on the mound in 2002 for the Terps, recording the fourth-highest single-season saves total in school history with six. A decorated student-athlete, Beck was recently named to the 2002 Verizon Academic All-America Team's District II First Team with a 3.85 GPA in Journalism.

ON DECK: WILLIAM & MARY

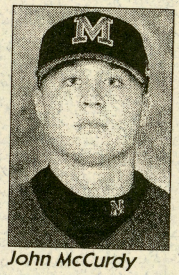
- William & Mary is the opponent for Maryland's regular season finale. The Tribe visit Shipley Field with an overall record of 29-22 this year, including a 10-8 mark in the Colonial Athletic Association.
- The Tribe are riding a season-best eight-game winning streak. William & Mary has outscored its opponents 83-26 over that span and is now batting at a .306 clip as a team while pitching to a team ERA of 4.56.
- Senior catcher Matt Kirby leads the Tribe with a .341 batting average. William & Mary's top power hitter has been sophomore outfielder Marshall Hubbard, who leads the club with eight home runs and 38 RBI. Sophomore right-hander Chris Ray has excelled out of the bullpen for the Tribe and leads the team with five saves in 24 appearances.
- In the teams' previous meeting this season on April 2 in Williamsburg, Va., the Terps pounded out 17 hits en route to 14-3 victory over the Tribe. Junior shortstop John McCurdy (Crofton, Md.) fell a double short of hitting for the cycle by going 3-for-6 with a triple, home run and three RBI, while junior infielder Kyle George (Bel Air, Md.) was 3-for-5 with two doubles and four RBI. Junior right-hander Todd Ainsworth (Hershey, Pa.) earned the victory by allowing one earned run in 5.0 IP.

THE FRIENDLY CONFINES OF SHIPLEY FIELD

- Maryland baseball has called Shipley Field home since 1965, and in 2002, the Terrapins could record their best record ever at home. The 2002 Terps are currently for the all-time single-season victory mark at Shipley Field with a 24 victories. By defeating William & Mary, the 2002 club would surpass the 1992 team's school record for home wins in a season (24-9).
- All-time, the Terrapins have played excellent baseball in front of the home crowd at Shipley. The Terps are 443-255-6 all-time at Shipley and have had just four losing seasons in 38 seasons of baseball at the friendly confines.

McCURDY VYING FOR NATIONAL HONORS

- Maryland junior shortstop John McCurdy (Crofton, Md.) has put together a season worthy of All-American consideration and is looking to become Maryland's first All-American since 1992 when Derek Hacopian earned the honor. He also earned semifinalist selection for the Dick Howser Trophy, which is given annually to the nation's top collegiate baseball player. The third-year player leads Maryland in every offensive category and also ranks among the ACC and NCAA leaders in several categories.



John McCurdy

- As of May 5, McCurdy ranked 10th in Division I-A in batting with a .452 average. He is also among the leaders in home runs per game (T-12th, 0.38) and RBIs per game (5th, 1.52).
- In the ACC, McCurdy ranks first in total bases and is second in batting average, hits, runs, home runs, RBI and slugging percentage. He has a shot at becoming the first ACC Triple Crown winner since 1999 when Marshall McDougall led the ACC in batting (.419), home runs (28) and RBIs (106).
- For the season, McCurdy is batting .446 with 95 hits, 18 home runs, 76 RBI, 177 total bases, 20 stolen bases and a .831 slugging percentage.

OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER...

- Terry Rupp's Terrapins have been a hitting machine this season. The Terps are averaging 8.8 runs per game while batting .316 as a team.
- Five starters are batting above .300, led by John McCurdy (Crofton, Md.). He leads the team with a .446 average and is followed by Matt Swope (New Carrollton, Md.) at .368, sophomore Anthony Buffone (Manalapan, N.J.) at .360, junior Daryl Whitmer (Waldorf, Md.) at .354 and freshman Jason Maxey (Columbia, Md.) at .335.
- In 18 of their 55 games, the Terps have scored at least 10 runs, including five games with 20-plus runs. For the first time in school history, Maryland had back-to-back 20-run games in a double-header (March 5 vs. UMES) and had a stretch of three consecutive games of 20-plus runs at home.
